SATOLLI COUNCIL

Expresses Its Sympathy on Death of Frank Perry.

The following resolutions on the death of Frank Perry, prepared by Messrs. John J. Crotty, William J. O'Connor, Louis T. Baker, William J. O'Sullivan and Will P. McDonogh, were adopted by Satolli Council, V. M. I., at the meeting held Monday night:

Whereas, It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of our good friend, Frank Perry, the brother of our well beloved friends Messrs. James, William and George Perry, members of this council; and,

Whereas, We realize that these few words but feebly express our sincere and heartfelt sympathy; yet be it

Resolved, By Satolli Council, here assembled, that we take this means of conveying to the bereaved family our sentiments in this their hour of sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our friend, a copy sent to the Catholic press of the city of Louisville, and likewise a copy be spread upon the minutes of Satolli Council, No. 193, Young Men's Institute.

The meeting was unimportant, only routine business being transacted, but steps were taken to have all waiting candidates ready for receiving the degrees at the union initiation next Sunday week. Satolli has been making satisfactory progress this winter, and if the same spirit and energy continue the present officers will have made a fine record. They are anxious to reach the front rank and are entitled to the hearty support of the Catholic young men of the city at least.

LARGE MILLINERY STOCK.

Mrs. Katie C. Costigan has opened a new and handsome millinery parlor at 816 West Market street, where she invites her friends to call and see her large stock. Her line is all new and up to date, and embraces the most stylish hats and bonnets known to the milliner's art. Those who patronize her are sure to be pleased with the treatment they will receive.

READY TO BUILD.

Now that the full insurance will soon be paid, the Board of Trustees of St. Augustine's church in Jeffersonville are ready to take the initiatory steps for the erection of a new and handsome edifice. The friends of the beloved and zealous pastor, Rev. Father O'Connell, will assist him in his good work to their utmost extent.

FEDERATION.

The regular monthly meeting of the Catholic Federation was postponed till next Friday night at Satolli Hall. The officers and delegates did not want to meet on Good Friday, hence this action. There will be letters of more than usual importance read Friday, besides much business that will interest the members.

BECOMES A SOLDIER.

Our good friend Matt Winn, of the Board of Public Safety, is now a Kentucky soldier, having been appointed a Colonel by Gov. Beckham. Col. Winn will wear the uniform with honor and dignity, and whenever occasion demands will find an army of Irish troops ready to respond to his command.

CHORAL SOCIETY.

The Hibernian Choral Society, which gives great promise, will hold its regular rehearsal meetings at the home of Mrs. A. N. Cunningham, 742 Zane street. It is quite probable that this new organization will give a musicale in the near future, the proceeds to be used to procure a musical library.

SECURED THEATER.

The Republican State convention will be held in this city the first week in May. Chairman Barnett has arranged a contract with Manager John Macauley for the use of his theater for the convention. Unless the breach is healed there will be a big fight by the two local factions for recognition.

Mrs. K. Costigan,

816 W. MARKET STREET.

WANT SHORTER HOURS.

The carpenters' unions have given notice to the contracting builders that they will demand an eight hour day on May 1. This notice was given in November, 1903, and the contractors have had ample time to arrange for the new order of things. The regulation is not an unreasonable one, and several of the leading contractors have signified their willingness to adopt the schedule.

MACAULEY'S.

Manager Macauley announces Miss Julia Marlowe for next Monday and Tuesday, for whom Charles Frohman has revived in magnificent style "When Knighthood Was in Flower." The potency of the attraction is as great as the first season, and everywhere Miss Marlowe has drawn crowded houses. The amusing race horse play, "Checkers," will fill out the week. It comes here headed by Thomas Ross and the same cast seen in New York.

BUCKINGHAM.

The Buckingham will present a great bill next week, when the popular favorite, Al Reeves and his big beauty show, will hold the boards. This company is said to be a constellation of vaudeville and comedy stars, and the two musical bus-lesques have met with great favor in the leading vaudeville theaters of the country.

MASONIC THEATER.

For Easter week the Masonic Theater has secured the Brothers Byrne, who come with a brand-new and up-to-date edition of the "New Eight Bells." The company is a strong one, the stage setting unique, and merriment and novel situations prevail from the rise to the drop of the curtain.

NEW TREES.

American Elms Replace English Variety at Gethsemani.

The beautiful shade trees approaching the entrance to Gethsemani Abbey in Nelson county, which were destroyed last year by some insectivorous growths, have been replaced. The trees were English elms, planted many years ago. They were replaced with American elms sent out from Louisville. Ernest Kettig, Superintendent of the Western Park, set out 175 elms in place of the old ones, and Abbot Obrecht is pleased with the work. Col. F. Joseph Herrmann, President of the Sinking Fund, assisted Superintendent Kettig in the work, and Louis Seelbach, of the Park Commissioners, who is a friend of the Abbot, was also present. The new trees will afford a shade within the next two years and eventually will be as beautiful as the old ones.

RESOLUTIONS OF SYMPATHY.

St. Michael's Branch of the Catholic Knights of America, of which the late Hugh Higgins was a member, passed the following resolutions upon his death at his last meeting:

Whereas, God in His divine mercy has called to His heavenly abode our beloved brother Knight of St. Michael's Branch, No. 642, C. K. of A., Hugh J. Higgins; and,

Whereas, By his death the branch has lost one who has been a faithful member, and who had served shortly before his death as Recording Secretary of this branch; be it

Resolved, That Branch No. 642 extend to Brother William M. Higgins and family its sincere sympathy; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on our minutes and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family of our departed brother, and a copy sent to the Kentucky Irish American and the Catholic Knights of America Journal.

MOVES SOUTH.

Edmund Coll, one of the best known men in Jeffersonville, and for some time the popular individual book-keeper for the First National Bank of that city, has resigned his position and gone to Birmingham, Ala., where he will be general store-keeper for the Louisville and Nashville railroad. The position is responsible one and pays a handsome salary. His many friends feel elated over his success, though they will miss him from their midst.

NEW MASS.

A magnificent new mass by the famous composer Guilmant will be sung tomorrow in the Dominican church of St. Louis Bertrand. Many beautiful solos occur during the different parts of this new mass and these will be rendered by members of that choir. This is one of the best choirs in the city, and one can always be sure of hearing excellent music at the services.

WOMEN'S EUCHRE.

The Catholic Woman's Club will give another of its delightful euchres in the club rooms on Walnut street next Tuesday. Those given before Lent were very popular, therefore a large attendance of lady and gentlemen friends may be looked for to contest for the handsome prizes that will be distributed. This afternoon there will be a sale of Easter cakes.

OFFER FREE BOOTH.

The Board of Directors of the Floyd County Fair Association met in New Albany on Wednesday night, and offered the ladies comprising the St. Edward's Hospital Club a booth during the fair to be held next August free of charge. The generous offer will be accepted, and will add much to the popularity of the fair.

BACK FROM HOT SPRINGS.

Col. Jim Whallen and Edward T. Tierney, who have been at Hot Springs, Ark., for three weeks, returned home Thursday. Col. Whallen went to the Springs for stomach trouble and Mr. Tierney for relief from rheumatism. Both returned much improved in health.
