

Alpha Epsilon Pi

Hanukkah party held for children's hospital

Alpha Epsilon Pi, which was mainly a Jewish fraternity, helped sponsor several events throughout the year. These consisted of the Cancer Society Dribblethon, the Heart Fund Drive, Adopt-a-House, the spring and fall formal and the Pot Belly Party.

They also gave a party at the children's hospital during Hanukkah.

The main project of the pledges was painting the gymnasium at the YWCA.

Officers for the past year were Terry Gindstaff, president; Doug Carrol, vice-president; Terry Pasley, secretary; and Wayne Ulrey, treasurer.

FRONT ROW: Steve Kangisser, Paul Storch, Jeff Frank, Clopton Burnett, Doug Carroll, Jim Allen, Russ Stone. BACK

ROW: Bart Levy, John Sims, Ernie Grindstaff, Wayne Ulrey, Gary Henry, Alan Sinex, Buster Hayslett.

Henry plans grad school in London

Gary Henry is a senior majoring in political science and Latin American Studies, a topical major. He plans to attend graduate school in London and focus on national urban studies.

During the 73-74 year, he received the highest scholastic average of his fraternity. Henry, who is president of Alpha Epsilon Pi, has held other offices such as treasurer, house chairman, secretary, Little Sister chairman and social chairman. He was also in charge of the Heart Fund Drive and the Cancer Society Dribblethon.

He was the public relations chairman of the state convention.

As a member-at-large of the Student Center Board, Henry has represented the Concert Committee and Travel Committee on the policy making board. He has been the leader of the Concert Committee.

He served on the Greek Steering Committee and is a member of Lamp and Cross Honor Society. Henry was on the Talent Selections Committee of the Central Kentucky Concert and Lecture Series and is also a member of the UK Troupers.